Levi – Sellin Collection B69.22

Scope and Contents

The Levi – Sellin collection consists of photographs of Anchorage scenes. These scenes include the Fourth of July, Railroad, and scenic subjects. Scenes of the Fourth of July in 1920 include Co. B. of the 21st U.S. Inf., the Elks Float B.P.O.E, the Loyal Order of Moose float, the Start of the seven-mile Marathon race, and the Presbyterian Sunday school float. Scenes of the Railroad include photographs of the Alaska Railroad in Anchorage in 1918, Engine No. 620 with an ARR Group, 1918-1920, and photos of flat cars and a caboose at the Alaskan Railroad yards in Anchorage. The photographs of Anchorage scenes include photos of 4th Avenue and E Street, the Anchorage Daily Times, the Post Office, Government Buildings, Turnagain arm, the Masonic Building, a Red Cross Benefit Ball Game, Lake Otis, and of the U.S. Government Auctioning Lots in Anchorage. The collection is housed in the photo file collection. Please see photo list for specific photograph information.
