TITLE: Wallace J. Wellenstein Collection

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2017.023

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: 1933-1945, bulk 1942-1944

Extent: 1 box; 1 linear foot

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Wallace J. Wellenstein, Mike Roberts, Ordway Studio, Ordway-Neff, Don C. Knudsen, Schallerer's, Ordway

Administrative/Biographical History:

Wally Wellenstein (1921-2012) was born in Albany, Minnesota. He enlisted in the U.S. Army and served with the Army Transportation Office in Juneau from 1942 to 1945. After the war, he obtained his degree in architecture from the University of Minnesota and returned to Alaska in 1949. He became a prominent local architect, and was very active in the local skiing community and various civic groups.

Scope and Content Description:

The collection consists of one album, measuring 11.5" x 9", containing 243 images created or collected by Wellenstein; 28 loose photo prints; and one bound diary containing entries dated between 1942 and 1944. Most images depict military life in and around Juneau during World War II. For more information, see Detailed Description of Collection.
