TITLE: Arturo Lloyd Alaska Railroad Photographs

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2017.032

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: circa 1959-1966

Extent: 8 items

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Arturo Lloyd

Administrative/Biographical History:
Arturo (Arthur) Lloyd was born in San Francisco, California, in 1925. He worked in public relations for Western Pacific Railway from 1949 to 1961, when he joined the National Railroad Passenger Corporation, later called Amtrak. He retired from Amtrak in 1991. Lloyd died in December 2016.

Scope and Content Description:
The collection contains eight black-and-white negatives depicting Alaska Railroad equipment and the steamer Prince George. Ninety-six color 35mm slides depict equipment from the Alaska Railroad and the White Pass & Yukon Route, as well as sights Lloyd encountered on his tours. Three images from Southeast Alaska may have been taken during an Inside Passage voyage. See Detailed Description of Collection for more information.

Arrangement: Arranged by format, date, and subject.

CONDITIONS GOVERNING ACCESS AND USE
Restrictions on Access: The collection is open for research use.

Physical Access: Original items in good condition.

Technical Access: No special equipment is needed to access the materials. A lightbox may be used to view transparencies.

Conditions Governing Reproduction and Use:
The Anchorage Museum is the owner of the materials and makes available reproductions for research, publication, and other uses. Written permission must be obtained from the Anchorage Museum before any reproduction use. The Anchorage Museum does not necessarily hold copyright to all of the materials in the collections. In some cases, permission for use may require seeking additional authorization from the copyright owners.
