

- ELEVATOR
- RESTROOM
- ATM
- LOCKERS
- WHEELCHAIRS
- PARKING
- INFORMATION/TICKETING

NO FOOD OR DRINK in galleries

NO FLASH photography or VIDEO recording

NO BACKPACKS in galleries

Note: East and West wings connected only on levels 1 and 2

WEST WING

LEVEL 1

Museum Store

Authentic Alaska Native art and craft, distinctive jewelry and items inspired by Northern design

Muse Restaurant

Imaginative cuisine offered in a lounge-like setting with outdoor patio

Atwood Resource Center (Library and Archives)

Books, maps, photographs on Alaska history and ethnography

LEVEL 2

Smithsonian Arctic Studies Center

Rare Alaska Native heritage objects from the Smithsonian Institution's National Museum of Natural History and National Museum of the American Indian

Arctic Gallery

Temporary exhibitions exploring the North

LEVEL 3

Temporary exhibitions

LEVEL 4

Chugach Gallery

Temporary exhibitions

Amenities:

Restrooms with baby changing stations on all levels throughout museum. Water dispenser, drinking fountains, lockers, coat racks, ATMs, and phone/device charging stations on first floor. Wheelchairs available upon request.

EAST WING

LEVEL 1

Family Galleries

Temporary exhibitions explaining art and culture

Atrium

Temporary art, history and science exhibitions

Discovery Center

Invent in Spark!Lab, create in Art Lab, and explore physics, earth and life science

Planetarium

Educational, entertaining films and presentations that explore astronomy and the natural world

Auditorium

Films, lectures and presentations offered throughout the year

Atrium Café

Refreshments and snacks available for purchase

LEVEL 2

Alaska Exhibition Gallery

The Alaska exhibition tells Alaska's story through multiple voices and perspectives

2nd Floor Atrium

Temporary exhibitions

Northern Narratives Gallery

Temporary exhibitions with a Northern focus

LEVEL 3

Art of the North Galleries

Reflects the regional landscape; themes include exploration, lifestyles and portraits