OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: 1974-2005

Extent: 13 boxes; 13 linear feet

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Fran Durner

Administrative/Biographical History:

Award-winning photojournalist Fran Durner came to Alaska in 1973. She worked for the Anchorage Times from 1976-1979 and the Anchorage Daily News from 1979-2010. She did freelance work for numerous publications including Life, National Geographic, Time and Der Spiegel.

Scope and Content Description:

The collection consists of 7354 color and black-and-white negatives, 35mm color transparencies, color and black-and-white prints, as well as news clippings, field notes, and other ephemera pertaining to the freelance photojournalism work of Fran Durner in Alaska during the 1970s-1990s. For more information, see Detailed Description of Collection.

Arrangement: Arranged by format and subject. Subject categories primarily from original containers. Oversize mounted photographs arranged chronologically.

CONDITIONS GOVERNING ACCESS AND USE

Restrictions on Access: The collection is open for research use.

Physical Access: Original items in good condition. Some slides damaged by decomposition of original plastic sleeves. One negative strip damaged by glassine adhesion.

Technical Access: No special equipment is needed to access the materials.

Conditions Governing Reproduction and Use:

The Anchorage Museum is the owner of the materials and makes available reproductions for research, publication, and other uses. Written permission must be obtained from the Anchorage Museum before any reproduction use. The Anchorage Museum does not necessarily hold copyright to all of the materials in the collections. In some cases, permission for use may require seeking additional authorization from the copyright owners.

- Pioneer dentist. Official Entry, Best Photo Series, Alaska Press Club Competition 1980 [Trifold mount. Four images from photo feature on dentist Lee McKinley. Entry blank and original clipping adhered to back of mount. Prints of .96.71, .96.118, .96.150, .96.138]

.1134-1138 – Winds raked Anchorage. Official Entry, Best Photo Series, Alaska Press Club Competition 1980 [Trifold mount. Five images from photo feature on November 1979 windstorm. Entry blank and original clipping adhered to back of mount.]

.1134 – This fence, like many others in Muldoon, was blown flat and now is nothing but a series of gates.

.1135 – Before the winds blew, this truck and trailer were parked neatly next to each other behind St. Patrick's Cathedral, 2111 Muldoon Road. Now, they give new meaning to the term semi-trailer.

.1136 – Boots Nelson is understandably upset. Her front yard is now littered with the roof of her house and the wreckage of her son's motorcycle. And behind her home in the trailer park at DeBarr and Muldoon are the remnants of a shed taken by the wind, too.

.1137 – Municipal workmen were out on the job Friday, replacing telephone lines ripped down by the gale-force winds.

.1138 – Street signs without street sign poles were a common sight in the wake of Thursday's storm. This one is in Muldoon, where the worst damage is.

.1139 – A slender lass pumps some heavy iron. Official Entry, Best Sports Photo, Alaska Press Club Competition 1980 [Pam Dawson lifting weights in gym. Entry blank and original clipping adhered to back of mount.]
