TITLE: Wallace J. Wellenstein Photographs

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2018.021

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: circa 1949-1969

Extent: 1 box; 1 linear foot

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Wallace J. Wellenstein, Howard C. Robinson, Everett J. Wilde

Administrative/Biographical History:

Wally Wellenstein (1921-2012) was born in Albany, Minnesota. He enlisted in the U.S. Army and served with the Army Transportation Office in Juneau from 1942 to 1945. After the war, he obtained his degree in architecture from the University of Minnesota and returned to Alaska in 1949 to work with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. In 1952, he left the service of the Corps of Engineers to work in the private sector; in 1962, he opened his own architectural firm. He was very active with the Anchorage Ski Club (ASC) and designed the ski lodge the club erected at Arctic Valley in 1952.

Scope and Content Description:

The collection consists of 690 35mm slides, 19 black-and-white photo prints, 2 digital photo prints, and one news clipping created or collected by Wally Wellenstein. The images mostly depict outdoor recreation in Alaska, including skiing, hunting, fishing, and bush flying, as well as various towns and villages that Wellenstein visited during the 1950s and 1960s. For more information, see Detailed Description of Collection.

Arrangement: Arranged by format and subject.
