

North X North Summit & Festival

May 1 through 5, 2019 | Anchorage Museum

The North x North Summit & Festival celebrates connection and culture across the North. The third-annual event features five days of conversations, workshops, exhibitions, performances, presentations, music, dance, installations, food, film and experiences highlighting Northern people, landscapes and cultures.

The Summit

May 1 Resilience Summit

May 2 Arctic Research Day

With a special emphasis this year on gender and indigenizing. Open to registered participants only.

The Festival

May 3 through 5

Features activities and conversations around citizen science, language, gender, innovation, food, ice-cream, earthquake prep, music, film and more. Open to the general public.

Sponsorship Opportunities

The North x North Summit & Festival is only possible with the financial support of our community. Please consider making a contribution to the Anchorage Museum to underwrite the many programs and events that will impact participants through building relationships and sharing knowledge.

Sponsors of the North by North Festival are highly-visible proponents of a strong and successful future for Alaska. With nearly 1,000 people expected to visit and engage during NxN, there is ample opportunity to share your message, build your brand, and connect with customers and the public.
