OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: circa 1910-1942 (bulk 1912-1914)

Extent: 1 box; 0.4 linear feet

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Horace Edward Auringer, Sarah Elizabeth Patchell, Basil Clemons, Clemons & Koon

Administrative/Biographical History:
Dr. Horace E. Auringer was born in February, 1889, in New York. He arrived in Alaska sometime in 1912. He was hired by the Guggenheim Mine to open a six bed hospital in Flat, Alaska. From there he traveled the region by dog team and other modes of transportation to serve the miners in the remote areas of the Iditarod District of interior Alaska.

He left Alaska in 1916 or 1917 to serve in the U.S. Army medical corps in World War I. He did not return to Alaska after completing his military service. He opened a medical practice in Savona, New York; then moved in 1920 to Corning, N.Y., where he worked at the Corning Hospital. In 1929 he opened a family practice in Addison, N.Y. where he worked until his retirement. He died in 1961 in Corning, N.Y.

Scope and Content Description:
The collection consists of 186 black-and-white prints, 37 nitrate negatives and a memoir by S.E. Patchell, entitled My Extraordinary Years of Adventures and Romance in Klondike and Alaska, (London: A.E. Stockwell, Ltd., 1942). Included are many photographs taken by Basil Clemons, whom Auringer knew while in the territory.
