ANCHORAGE DESIGN WEEK

SPONSORSHIP

Anchorage Design Week is the biggest, multi-disciplinary, design-focused event in Anchorage. It brings together designers and the public for a week of discussions, workshops and events.

Design affects how we view the world.

We know that design can help us envision, create and build a North that enables a better future for all, creating a collective visual and narrative identity based on optimism and problem-solving.

Be a driving force in the future of Design Week and in demonstrating what design can make possible for our community.
