TITLE: John Snelling Slide Collection

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2016.010

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: circa 1950-1987 [bulk 1978, 1987]

Extent: 3 boxes; 0.6 linear feet

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): unknown

Administrative/Biographical History:
John Snelling is a collector of Alaskan imagery.

Scope and Content Description:

The collection consists of 473 color 35mm slides from several discrete collections, all purchased by John Snelling.

Images 1-195 are from a trip to Alaska made in 1987; the photographer traveled by rail into the Interior, by bus down the Alaska Highway, and by ship through the Inside Passage. The collection consists of a two-carousel slide show of selected images, with a list of captions.

Images 196-243 are from a trip to Alaska made in 1975. The photographer left Vancouver and traveled the Inside Passage to Ketchikan, Wrangell, Skagway, and Juneau, with a side trip on the White Pass & Yukon Route to Lake Bennett.

Images 244-269 are a collection of photographs taken in the 1950s, in Fairbanks, Circle, Fort Yukon, Portage, and Eklutna, as well as scenes from a cruise on the Tanana River. Most bear captions with time of day, weather, and photograph exposure notes.

Collection 4 includes images 270-279, taken in Kotzebue in September 1974, as well as images 280-300, taken in Kodiak in October 1978.

Images 301-304 were taken on an Alaska Highway trip in June 1981, and show the trading store in Tok, a state border sign, and the start of the highway sign in Dawson.

Images 305-473 were all taken in 1978 on a trip to Alaska, including a ride on the White Pass & Yukon Route railroad, travel up the Alaska Highway to Anchorage and the Matanuska Valley, and flights to communities off the road system.

For more information, see Detailed Description of Collection.
