TITLE: Wallace J. Wellenstein Collection

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2017.023

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: 1933-1958, bulk 1942-1944

Extent: 2 boxes; 1.4 linear feet

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Wallace J. Wellenstein, Mike Roberts, Ordway Studio, Ordway-Neff, Don C. Knudsen, Schallerer's

Administrative/Biographical History:

Wally Wellenstein (1921-2012) was born in Albany, Minnesota. He enlisted in the U.S. Army and served with the Army Transportation Office, working at the Juneau submarine port, from 1942 to 1945. After the war, he obtained his degree in architecture from the University of Minnesota and returned to Alaska in 1949. He became a prominent local architect and was very active in the local skiing community and various civic groups.

Scope and Content Description:

The collection consists of one album, measuring 11.5" x 9", containing 243 images created or collected by Wellenstein; 215 loose photo prints including some color photographs; and one bound diary containing entries dated between 1942 and 1944. Most images depict military life in and around Juneau during World War II. For more information, see Detailed Description of Collection.

Arrangement: Album order maintained.

CONDITIONS GOVERNING ACCESS AND USE

Restrictions on Access: The collection is open for research use.

Physical Access: Original items in good condition. Gloves required for use of album. Many prints removed from albums in 2019 discolored by tape residue.

Technical Access: No special equipment is needed to access the materials.
