TITLE: Wanda Griffin Ephemera Collection

COLLECTION NUMBER: B1968.021

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: 1953-1968

Extent: 0.5 cubic feet

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Administrative/Biographical History:
Wanda Mildred Gelles Griffin (1922-2015) was born, and spent her whole life, in Anchorage, Alaska. After graduating from Anchorage High School in 1940 and working at Providence Hospital on 9th and L St, she married Ned Griffin on May 9, 1942. Together, they raised 4 children (Chuck, Marie, Tim, and Mark) in Wanda’s childhood home at 6th and L St. In 1950, the couple opened the Knik Arms Apartments on Northern Lights and Spenard Rd, which Wanda managed and Ned maintained until they sold the building in 1968.

Wanda was the longest-term parishioner of Holy Family Cathedral and was heavily involved in the church, including serving as chair to the Altar Society. Wanda was also a longtime member of the Cook Inlet Historical Society and was involved with the Anchorage Museum, helping to identify photographs of early Anchorage.¹

Scope and Content Description:
This collection consists of various pieces of ephemera relating to the arts, sports, and other community activities in Anchorage.

Arrangement: This collection was arranged by the Cook Inlet Historical Society upon acquisition. Original order is unknown.
