Guide prepared by: Chloe Nielsen, Archivist

TITLE: Anchorage Fire Department Early Records

COLLECTION NUMBER: B1967.027

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: 1921-1954

Extent: 0.5 cubic feet

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Anchorage Fire Department; Anchorage City Clerk

Administrative/Biographical History: “The Anchorage Fire Department was formed in 1915. It grew as a combination paid/volunteer organization to 50 personnel by 1951 when the first ambulance service began. In 1967, the first unification of services occurred when seven volunteer departments combined into the fully paid Greater Anchorage Area Borough Fire Department.”

Scope and Content Description:
This collection consists mainly of correspondence pertaining to the Anchorage Fire Department’s operations and equipment, as well as some regarding law enforcement, public health, and other aspects of early Anchorage. This collection also includes a record book, documents detailing the specifications of firefighting equipment, booklets, and newspaper clippings.

Arrangement:
This collection was originally arranged (items given numbers) upon acquisition by the Cook Inlet Historical Society in 1967. At some point, a Museum archivist arranged these items into the folders they live in today.

CONDITIONS GOVERNING ACCESS AND USE

Restrictions on Access: The collection is open for research use.

Physical Access: Most items are fragile but in good condition. Some are torn. Requires careful handling.

Technical Access: No special equipment is needed to access the materials.

Conditions Governing Reproduction and Use:
The Anchorage Museum is the owner of the materials and makes available reproductions for research, publication, and other uses. Written permission must be obtained from the Anchorage Museum before any reproduction use. The Anchorage Museum does not hold copyright to the collection. Records created by government entities (e.g., Fire Departments, City Clerk, mayors), are in the public domain. Records created under corporate authorship (e.g., A.G. Long Co., White Company) will enter the public domain 120 years from the date of creation, until which time copyright belongs to the creator.

ADMINISTRATIVE INFORMATION

Acquisition and Appraisal Information
This collection was donated to the Cook Inlet Historical Society on September 20, 1967, by D.B. Rothermel, who received them from a fireman who saved them when the Fire Hall on 5th and F was moved or torn down, according to the accession file. CIHS transferred the collection to the Museum.
