

AUGUST COHN COLLECTION. Photographs, 1915-1917.

August Cohn was a civil engineer and surveyor with the Alaska Engineering Commission. His work focused on the original Anchorage town site. He was also involved with work on many bridges constructed along the Alaska Railroad from Seward to Nenana.

This collection contains 298 black and white photos taken by August Cohn during his work with the Alaska Engineering Commission, 1915-1917. The photos focus on the Anchorage town site area, including images of construction, railroad buildings and equipment, anchorage residents and their families, houses, cabins, and local businesses.

Donated to the Anchorage Museum by Mr. Cohn's Daughter, Helen Copeland, in 1997
