TITLE: Alberta Pyatt Negative Collection

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2009.057

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: circa 1915

Extent: 32 negatives

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Alberta Pyatt

Administrative/Biographical History:
The life dates of Alberta Pyatt (née Bouthillier) are not currently known. Alberta worked as an assistant to Sydney Laurence in his photography business, the Sydney Laurence Company, in Anchorage, Alaska. Laurence was working under contract with the Alaska Engineering Commission to photograph the early Anchorage town site and railroad construction, but it is not clear which photos were taken under contract for the AEC and which are for Laurence’s own studio. Pyatt’s extant photos include people, views, and activities from the Anchorage area during the years 1915 and 1916.

Scope and Content Description:
The collection consists of 32 nitrate negatives, 3.5 x 5.5 in. or 2.75 x 4.5 in., depicting scenes in and around Anchorage, Alaska, in 1915.

Arrangement:
Arrangement as received from donor.

CONDITIONS GOVERNING ACCESS AND USE

Restrictions on Access: The collection is open for research use.
Physical Access: Original nitrate negatives are restricted access only. Digital scans are available for viewing in the Atwood Resource Center.
