TITLE: Grover and Alitha Fireoved Collection

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2001.014

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: circa 1943-1965

Extent: 1.4 linear feet; 3 boxes

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Administrative/Biographical History:

Grover Fireoved was born in Eden, Ohio, in 1889. With his wife Alitha, he homesteaded 160 acres of land bounded generally by Bragaw Street, Debarr Street, Russian Jack hill, and the Glenn Highway. The Fireoveds subdivided the land to form Wonder Park Subdivision. Within the subdivision was Wonder Park, a gathering place for residents. The Fireoveds arranged Eskimo dances and blanket toss activities at the park and at their home during Fur Rendezvous in the 1950s. Grover worked in real estate and operated the public skating rink. Alitha worked as an accountant and was active in the Anchorage Toastmistress Club, of which she was the founding president. Grover died January 3, 1964. Alitha died in 2000 or 2001.

Scope and Content Description:

The collection consists of one photograph album, measuring 11" x 9.5", containing 410 mounted black-and-white and color prints; 149 color 35mm slides; 8 loose black-and-white prints; and ephemeral materials created or collected by Grover and Alitha Fireoved. Most of the images were taken on the Fireoveds' travels both in Alaska and Outside. There are also many photographs of the Fireoved homestead and Wonder Park, as well as Anchorage Fur Rendezvous activities. For more information, see Detailed Description of Collection.

Arrangement: Arranged by format.
