TITLE: John Endler, Jr. Slides

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2023.003

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: 1956

Extent: 52 slides

Language and Scripts: English

Name of creator(s): John Endler, Jr.

Administrative/Biographical History:
John Endler, Jr. was a member of the Anthracite Railroads Historical Society (ARHS) in Lansdale, Pennsylvania, which received a collection of slides and negatives including images from Endler’s trip to Alaska in 1956.

The Anthracite Railroads Historical Society consists of almost 1,000 authors, historians, railroad employees, photographers, model railroaders, and rail fans that share interest in the railroads that served the anthracite coal mining region of eastern Pennsylvania. The archives include other images taken by Endler but are specific to the scope of collections for the ARHS.

Scope and Content Description:
This collection consists of 52 35mm slides that document Endler’s travel throughout Alaska in 1956, including images of Anchorage, Portage, Whittier, and Nome. The primary focus of the images is the Alaska Railroad and includes images of depots, train engines and cars, and views from the train.
