B76.92

Photographs of Davidson Glacier, the White Pass and Yukon Railroad area, Dawson city, Haines and Fort William H. Seward from Mt. Rippinsky, Tlingit Natives, and P.E. Kern's Tlingit basket collection and curio workshop.

Donated.

24 Photos.

Peter E. Kern was a promoter, businessman, and gold and silversmith. Kern came to Alaska during the gold rush and opened a jewelry store in Skagway in 1899. Kern also had a hotel in the woods above Lower Dewey Lake, which was destroyed by fire in 1912 or 1913. Kern would later be known for founding Kern Place, the first suburb of El Paso, Texas.

The collection consists of 24 printed photographs by Case and Draper and photogravure P.E. Kern. There are two negatives in the collection. The collection includes photographs of Davidson Glacier, the Lavelle Young, a Chilkat blanket, Deer Lake, White Pass and the Yukon Railroad, Dawson city, Haines and Fort William H. Seward from Mt. Rippinsky, and Tlingit Natives and crafts. Also in the collection are photographs of P.E. Kern's collection of Tlingit baskets and Curio workshop.

This collection was FIC at the Anchorage Museum in 1976.
