

HOTCHKISS COLLECTION. Photos. 1 album in .33 cu. ft. 1870s – 1938, 1951.

B81.20. Inventory.

The Hotchkiss Collection was collected by Ms. JoAnn Hotchkiss' parents. Her father worked on or in Saint Ann's Hospital in Juneau, Alaska.

The Hotchkiss Collection consists of 164 photographs and 23 negatives. Subjects in the collection include early Skagway, the White Pass and Yukon Railroad, and Soapy Smith. Other photographs include images of buildings and scenic views of Sitka, Ketchikan, Juneau, Fairbanks, Prince Rupert, B.C. and Kennewick, Washington. Other images include construction of the Hospital Building in Anchorage in 1951. The collection is arranged in number order in one album.

This collection was purchased from Ms. JoAnn F. Hotchkiss of Spokane, Washington by the Anchorage Museum in 1980.

HOTCHKISS COLLECTION. Photos. 1 album in .33 cu. ft. 1870s – 1938, 1951.
B81.20. Inventory.

INVENTORY

BOX 1

Series 1: Photographs

Album 1

B81.29.1 – 164

See detailed list of photographs attached.