Scope and Contents

The Sheppard and Donnelley collection consists of both correspondence and photographs. The photographs in the collection are primarily taken of subjects at Wasilla, Valdez, and Knik. Photographs of Wasilla include photos of the Wilmoth Company, Log Cabins, Poultry, the Railroad, a Lake, the Bogard, and pictures of Sledge Dogs. Photographs of Valdez include photos of Copper River Draying Company, Valdez Transportation Company, as well as sleds, dog teams, and an automobile on the Valdez to Fairbanks trail. Pictures of Knik include photos of the 1914 Fourth of July races and of the waterfront. Also in the collection are photos of 4th Avenue in Anchorage, the Union Jack and Stars & Stripes, Cordova, and a W&S Freighting on the Yukon. Photographers of the collection include O.G.H., W & S, Photocraft, Thomas Fotoshop, and P. (Phineas?) S. Hunt.

Correspondence in the collection consists of banking papers of Sheppard and Donnelley, including correspondence with W.T. Isted Company, bankbooks, and receipts. Also in the collection are papers concerning the wreck of the barge Danaco No. 3, which wrecked on Yukon Flats and two letters from family members to Edgar Ryder in 1927. Please see the item list for specific item information. The collection is arranged in four folders, Lot 1 Photographs, Lot 2 Barge Danaco #3 Wreck, Lot 3 Miscellaneous papers and letters, and Lot 4 Books.
