TITLE: Nye-Rhodes Photograph Collection

COLLECTION NUMBER: B1992-032

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: ca. 1944-1946, 1956-1958, 1984

Extent: 181 items, 0.2 linear feet

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Vida Nye, Doris Nye Rhodes, Arthur Eide, Don C. Knudsen, Schallerer, Winter & Pond Co., Lillian P. Ordway, Sawyer, Bedford, Charles S. Cann, Cecil Rhode

Administrative/Biographical History:

Vida Nye arrived in Anchorage in 1942 with her husband, Thurston Nye. The couple had been living in Toledo, Oregon, where Thurston worked at the sawmill. The two spent three months establishing residency in Alaska before being allowed to work; Thurston spent the three months working for alcohol supplier Milt Odom. Vida soon found work at Ft. Richardson in hangar D-47, where materiel for the war in the Aleutians was received and shipped out. Vida and Thurston stayed in Anchorage until 1946, when they drove out the Alaska Highway. The couple returned in 1955 and died in Anchorage, Vida in January 1978 and Thurston in August 1979. Their daughter, Doris Nye Rhodes, donated the photographs, along with a set of slides she created, in 1992.

Scope and Content Description:

The collection consists of black-and-white photographic prints and color slides of Alaskan scenes, including Anchorage, Ft. Richardson, and Fairbanks. Ephemeral materials include 4 matchbook covers, one coaster, one train ticket stub, and one cartoon.

Arrangement:

Arranged by format.

CONDITIONS GOVERNING ACCESS AND USE

Restrictions on Access: The collection is open for research use.
