TITLE: Edward A. Dunlap Collection

COLLECTION NUMBER: B1996.011

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: 1938-1939

Extent: 3 boxes; 2.1 linear feet

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Dr. Edward A. Dunlap, Ruth Carlson Krum, Roger Chute, Carl M. Hoverson

Administrative/Biographical History:

Dr. Edward A. Dunlap served as a United States Bureau of Fisheries doctor on St. George Island from May 1938 to May 1939. During his year on the island, he was responsible for the general care of both Native and non-Native residents. He delivered seven babies and performed 39 tonsillectomies, one acute appendectomy, one umbilical hernia repair, one torticollis correction, one ventral hernia repair, and one prophylactic appendectomy. All surgeries were performed solo, with the schoolteacher providing support in anesthesia.

Born November 11, 1910 in McKeesport, Pennsylvania, Dunlap was educated at Westminster College (BS 1932) and Western Reserve University (MD 1935). He completed an internship and residency in otorhinolaryngology at the Gorgas Hospital in the Canal Zone from 1935-1938. After his year in Alaska, he completed a second otorhinolaryngology residency at University Hospital Baltimore (1939-1940) and an ophthalmology residency at New York Hospital-Cornell Medical Center (1941). During World War II, he served at the Colón Hospital in the Canal Zone. After the war, he joined the faculty at Cornell University as clinical professor of ophthalmology, retiring in 1972. He participated in periodic relief work on Johnston and Wake Islands between 1975 and 1990. He also did four tours of duty on the Hope Ship in Ecuador,

Sri Lanka, Jamaica, and Brazil. He received an honorary D.Sc. degree from Westminster College in 1972. Dunlap died in 2004.

Scope and Content Description:

The collection consists of 247 black-and-white photographs (23 hand-tinted) and 193 black-and-white negatives (nitrate and acetate) taken by Dr. Edward A. Dunlap on St. George Island during the year May 1938 to May 1939. The photographs include 54 images of the town of St. George, including houses, buildings and scenery; 20 images of animals; 19 images of birds and gathering eggs; 18 images of boats; 10 images of flowers; 73 images of people; 20 images of the Russian Orthodox Church and a wedding celebration; 42 images of the seal rookery and seal harvest; 1 image of St. Paul; and 6 images not related to the Pribilof Islands, including Dutch Harbor and Ft. Yukon. For more information, see Detailed Description of Collection.

Arrangement: Arranged by subject.

CONDITIONS GOVERNING ACCESS AND USE

Restrictions on Access: The collection is open for research use. Publication of patient photographs may be restricted.

ADMINISTRATIVE INFORMATION

Acquisition and Appraisal Information

This collection was donated to the Anchorage Museum by Dr. Edward A. Dunlap in 1996.

Processing Note

Original negatives scanned and removed to freezer.

Note

Several prints have early processing notes on verso indicating the existence of an original negative which was not located in the collection in 2014. It is unclear whether original negs are missing, or whether copy negs were made and then discarded.
