TITLE: James W. Stuhler Slides

COLLECTION NUMBER: B1997.011

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: 1966; 1982-1986
Extent: 0.4 linear feet

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): James W. Stuhler, Arctic Circle Enterprises

Administrative/Biographical History:
James W. Stuhler worked on the Defense Environmental Restoration Account during 1966 and from 1984 through 1985. The purpose of his work was environmental cleanup of sites in the Aleutians and at other military sites, including some White Alice sites. Mr. Stuhler worked at Dutch Harbor with Colt Denfield, a member of the Corps of Engineers and author of Defense of Dutch Harbor, Alaska, in which many of the images in this collection appear in black and white. Mr. Denfield worked as historian on the project, while Mr. Stuhler worked as photographer. For more information, see The Defense of Dutch Harbor, Alaska From Military Construction to Base Cleanup, by Colt Denfield, 1987, and Dew Line: Distant Early Warning; The Miracle of America’s First Line of Defense, by Richard Morenus, 1957.

Scope and Content Description:
The collection consists of 806 35mm color slides. The first series (.1-432) depicts cleanup of sites at Caines Head (Kenai Peninsula), Cold Bay, Dutch Harbor, Kaktovik, Kodiak, Nome, and Yakutat. The second series (.433-806) contains personal photographs taken by Stuhler, including images of Ketchikan, Anchorage, Palmer, Fairbanks, and Valdez, as well as various aircraft. For more information, see Detailed Description of Collection.

Arrangement: Arranged by location.
CONDITIONS GOVERNING ACCESS AND USE

Restrictions on Access: The collection is open for research use.
