OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: 1963

Extent: 21 items, .001 linear feet

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Johnny M. Sartor

Administrative/Biographical History:

Johnny Sartor was born in Waco, TX, in September 1942. In 1962, he joined the United States Air Force; after basic training in San Antonio, TX, he was assigned to Elmendorf Air Force Base in Anchorage, AK. A member of the Elmendorf drill team, he participated in the Anchorage Fourth of July parade in 1963. After the Alaska Earthquake of 1964, martial law was declared in Anchorage and many military personnel were deployed around the city. Sartor assisted in retrieval of earthquake victims.

Scope and Content Description:

The collection consists of four print photos of the Fourth of July parade in Anchorage in 1963, showing Fourth Avenue; 16 color slides of Anchorage after the Alaska Earthquake of 1964; and one menu, from the Denali Grill and Restaurant in Anchorage.

Arrangement:

Materials arranged by format.
