TITLE: Vladimir Guliaev Photographs

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2013.032

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: circa 1992?

Extent: 2 boxes, 1.75 linear feet

Language and Scripts: The collection is in Russian.

Name of creator(s): Vladimir Evgenevich Guliaev

Administrative/Biographical History:

Vladimir Evgenevich Guliaev served as photographer on an anthropological expedition to Siberia undertaken by Don E. Dumond and Oleg Viktorovich Bychkov in 1992.

Scope and Content Description:

The collection consists of 199 photographs taken by Vladimir Guliaev in Siberia. Most are black-and-white prints, but there are a few color prints. The images seem to document the Evenki of Khanda, about whom Dumond, Bychkov, and Ronald Wixman wrote in 1992,¹ as well as the Tofa. The collection includes images of the social life and customs of the local people, portraits, and landscape photography. There are a few images of the expedition members (Guliaev, #103, Dumond and Bychkov, #100-102). Most of the large format prints carry manuscript identifications on the versos.

Arrangement: Arranged by size into two groupings. Color photographs filed after black-and-white.
