TITLE: Joe Crusey Photographs

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2013.070

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: 1943-1972

Extent: 200 images

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Joe Crusey

Administrative/Biographical History:

Long-time Anchorage resident Joe Crusey was working as an insurance adjustor during the 1964 earthquake. Later, he worked for many years as an art appraiser.

Scope and Content Description:

The collection consists of 147 color 35mm slides, one black-and-white print, and two black-and-white contact sheets of photographs taken by Joe Crusey. The images document life in Anchorage and Southcentral Alaska in the period 1947-1961, including the aftermath of the 1964 Alaska Earthquake. Also included are images from a road trip to Dawson City, Yukon, in the summer of 1961. For more information, see Detailed Description of Collection.

Arrangement: Arranged by format, location, and date.

CONDITIONS GOVERNING ACCESS AND USE

Restrictions on Access: The collection is open for research use.

Physical Access: Original items in good condition.

Technical Access: No special equipment is needed to access the materials. Light box may be used to view transparencies.

Conditions Governing Reproduction and Use:

The Anchorage Museum is the owner of the materials and makes available reproductions for research, publication, and other uses. Written permission must be obtained from the Anchorage Museum before any reproduction use. The Anchorage Museum does not necessarily hold copyright to all of the materials in the collections. In some cases, permission for use may require seeking additional authorization from the copyright owners.
