TITLE: Vera Zimmerman Photographs

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2013.077

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: 1936

Extent: 141 items

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Vera Zimmerman, H. W. Steward, Ordway Photo Shop, Schallerer, Trevor M. Davis, John E. Thwaites, Edmund Andrews, T. O.

Administrative/Biographical History:
Vera Zimmerman made a tour of the Inside Passage in 1936. She sailed aboard the Alaska Steamship Company’s SS Victoria, which that year made scheduled stops at Skagway, Haines, Juneau, Petersburg, Wrangell, and Ketchikan, according to the company’s sailing season brochure. Zimmerman also traveled some distance on the White Pass & Yukon Route, probably on the Alaska Steamship Company’s roundtrip tour from Skagway to Atlin. Vera Zimmerman may have lived in Idaho and the Los Angeles area. She died circa 1998.

Scope and Content Description:
The collection consists of 128 black-and-white snapshots and 13 black-and-white postcards created or collected by Vera Zimmerman during her 1936 trip up the Inside Passage. Images include scenes around the stated destinations of Skagway, Haines, Juneau, Petersburg, Wrangell, and Ketchikan, as well as stops on the road trip from Zimmerman’s home (possibly in Idaho) to Seattle, and stops the ship made at Victoria, British Columbia, and various points in Southeast Alaska. Of note are several photos of totems around Wrangell and Ketchikan, an image of the Peril Straits Packing Company in Todd, and Tlingit natives in Southeast villages.
Zimmerman also captured three images of the Soviet government’s historic 10,000-mile Santa Monica-Moscow flight via Alaska and Siberia, including one with pilot Sigismund Levanevski and navigator Victor Levchenko on the docks at Juneau.

Arrangement: Arranged by size (2.5 x 4.5” or 3 x 5”). Commercial images arranged after snapshots.
