This collection consists of one album containing 151 photographic prints and ephemera depicting a multitude of his personal photos during this time. The labeling on some of the photos states that they were taken during the time period of 1942 to 1944. Depicted within are numerous scenes of military life in Hawaii; San Diego; Adak; and Kodiak during the early 1940s. The majority of the images show Overstreet and his military friends in scenes of daily life and posed portraits. Most of the album's pages have been labeled with the men's names
