TITLE: Candy Waugaman Collection

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2008.024

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: circa 1936-1959

Extent: 81 items

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): unknown

Administrative/Biographical History:

Nothing was known about the provenance of the images at the time of processing. Some of the prints might have come from the collection of Joe de la Cerda, Sr., who served with the armed forces in Alaska in the early 1950s.

Scope and Content Description:

The collection consists of 81 black-and-white photographs of Anchorage and rural Alaska villages, most taken during or shortly after World War II. Twenty-eight images (.50-77) are of a parade on Fourth Avenue in Anchorage. For more information, see Detailed Description of Collection.

Arrangement: Loosely arranged by subject

CONDITIONS GOVERNING ACCESS AND USE

Restrictions on Access: The collection is open for research use.

Physical Access: Original items in good condition.

Technical Access: No special equipment is needed to access the materials.

Conditions Governing Reproduction and Use:

The Anchorage Museum is the owner of the materials and makes available reproductions for research, publication, and other uses. Written permission must be obtained from the Anchorage Museum before any reproduction use. The Anchorage Museum does not necessarily hold copyright to all of the materials in the collections. In some cases, permission for use may require seeking additional authorization from the copyright owners.
