ALASKA

AFTER A CRUISE ON

you, too, would say—

- "No other trip can begin to compare with our all-American trip to Alaska via the Alaska Steamship Company."
- "One of the most picturesque, scenic, restful and edifying vacations in this or any other Country."
- "It will be my pleasure to recommend your boats without any reservations."
- "Food was excellent and well-served."
- "Every traveling comfort was there."
- "The most wonderful trip I ever had and the most wonderful scenery I ever saw. (I'm a Californian, too)."

NOTE: Fares quoted on preceding pages for the Alaska Steamship Company steamer portion of the various tours and cruises mentioned are for minimum standard first-class accommodations. For all standard accommodations (rooms without private bath or toilet) one-way fares (round-trip, double) between Seattle and the principal Alaska gateways during the summer season, varying according to location on steamer, are as follows:
 Between Seattle and Skagway, $45.00, $50.00 and $55.00.
 Between Seattle and Cordova, $66.00, $70.75, $74.00, $78.50 and $83.50.
 Between Seattle and Valdez, $67.00, $71.75, $75.00, $79.50 and $84.50.
 Between Seattle and Seward, $70.00, $75.00, $78.00, $83.00 and $88.00.
 For staterooms with private bath or toilet, fares are approximately fifteen to forty per cent higher than the maximum fares for standard accommodations without such facilities.
 Fares for any particular room on any steamer to any port of call will be furnished on request.

* No service during winter. Fares applicable only during open season of navigation.
