TITLE: Dorothy Stauter Collection

COLLECTION NUMBER: B1980.041

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: circa 1905-1947

Extent: 1 box; 0.2 linear feet

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Ward Wells, P.S. Hunt, Winter & Pond, Steve McCutcheon, J.E. Haynes, Merl LaVoy, Sawyers, Schallerer, J.C. Evans, Alaska Shop, Frank LaRoche, Hewitt's Photo Shop, Robert Bragaw, Henry Kaiser

Administrative/Biographical History:

Dorothy Geraldine Stauter was born Oct. 12, 1913, in Hoquiam, Washington, to Isabel Sowers and Harold Nelson. She moved to Anchorage in the 1940s and worked as a clerk in Bert's Pharmacy. She was a member of Pioneers of Alaska Auxiliary 4, was a past board member and officer of the Retail Clerks Union Local 1496, and past treasurer of the Central Labor Council. Stauter died Sept. 26, 2005.

Scope and Content Description:

The collection consists of 154 black-and-white photographs and postcards and three color postcards of Valdez, Juneau, Anchorage, and other Alaskan towns and villages as well as scenic views of glaciers, mountains, and landscapes, all dating from the first half of the 20th century. There are many commercial photographs, including 38 by Valdez-based photographer P.S. Hunt. Of note are two images of the Alaska Central Railway route and images of early mining and logging operations. For more information see Detailed Description of Collection.
