Scope and Content Description:

The collection consists of 306 color 35mm slides and 29 photographic prints (one tinted) created or collected by Anchorage resident John "Jack" Broostrom. Twenty-seven of the prints are black-and-white snapshots, possibly taken by F.J. Goodman, a barber, on a visit to canneries on Kodiak Island, probably in the 1940s. The slide series includes images of the 1964 Alaska Earthquake, the Broostrom house in Anchorage, and the couple's activities in Southcentral Alaska. For more information, see Detailed Description of Collection.
