TITLE: William and Donna Harms Collection on Sydney and Jeanne Laurence

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2014.023

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: circa 1890s-1976

Extent: 2 boxes; 1 linear foot

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English and French.

Name of creator(s): Sydney Laurence, Jeanne Laurence, Einar Homstad, Maurice L. Sharp, Winter & Pond, Alfred Milotte, Charles S. Cann, Robert Bragaw, Bert Huntoon

Administrative/Biographical History:

Sydney Mortimer Laurence was born October 14, 1865, in Brooklyn, New York, to English parents. Laurence established his reputation as a painter abroad, but in 1904, at the age of 38, Laurence left his wife and two young sons in England and moved to Alaska. In 1915, he established a studio in Anchorage, where he painted and ran a commercial photography business. In 1924, Laurence established a second studio in Los Angeles. In 1928, he married artist Jeanne Kunath Holeman, a Frenchwoman who had come to America at the age of 32. Sydney died in 1940. Jeanne died in 1980.

Scope and Content Description:

The collection consists of 334 black-and-white negatives (most nitrate), 257 prints (black-and-white, color, and Polaroid), and ephemera created or collected by Jeanne Laurence. The images document Jeanne and Sydney's life in Anchorage and Los Angeles, including their work, their home life, and their social life. Many of the photographs date from Jeanne's life before her marriage to Sydney or after his death. There are many copy prints and copy negatives of artwork by both Sydney and Jeanne. A handful of scenic photographs by the Laurences and others might have been used as study material; similarly, the many dog photos were likely used by Jeanne as study material for her paintings. Of note are a series of images of Sydney and Jeanne camping in Denali National Park in 1929. For more information, see Detailed Description of Collection.

Arrangement: Arranged by format and subject
