TITLE: Arlene Mitchell Collection

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2001.027

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: circa 1929-1931

Extent: 36 items

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Winter & Pond, Ordway, Schallerer, C. H. Hope, Valdez Drug Co.

Administrative/Biographical History:

The USCG cutter Shoshone was commissioned January 10, 1931. It logged 4,911 hours of Bering Sea duty during its career, in 1933-1936, 1938, and 1940. During the 1940 season (May-August), it reported first at Valdez. On the Seward to Unalaska cruise, it stopped at "three villages, where Public Health Service doctors, attached to the Patrol, afforded medical and dental aid to the natives."¹ After Unalaska, it headed to Bristol Bay and then stopped at Cape Sarichef and Scotch Cap. In May and June, it transported a patient from Perryville to Unalaska; delivered mail to the Pribilofs, Nome, and "a number of villages"; ferried King Islanders from Cape Prince of Wales back to their island; and transferred a patient from Savoonga and another from King Cove to Unalaska. In July, it again visited the Pribilofs, cruised Bristol Bay, stopped at Attu, adjudicated a murder case in King Cove, arrested three Chignik youths and remanded them to Unga, and performed a marriage in Chignik. The ship was transferred to the United Kingdom in 1941 and rechristened the H.M.S. Landguard.

Scope and Content Description:

The collection includes 36 photographs and postcards, primarily of coastal towns visited by U.S. Coast Guard cutter Shoshone in 1931. Many of the postcards were commercially produced; the amateur photographer of the snapshots is unknown.

Arrangement: Arranged alphabetically by location
