TITLE: Empress Grocery Receipts

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2015.030

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: 1929

Extent: 1 box, 0.2 linear feet

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Empress Grocery

Administrative/Biographical History:

The Empress Grocery operated in Anchorage at least through 1944.

Scope and Content Description:

The collection contains carbon copies of receipts issued to customers of Empress Grocery in Anchorage, from six days in January and August of 1929. Several of the names also have towns associated with them; presumably, those without these addresses are Anchorage residents. Goods purchased range from produce (such as potatoes, cucumbers, and honeydew melon) to staples (such as butter and bacon) to treats (such as Cracker Jacks). See Detailed Description of Collection below for a listing of dates and customers' names. Most names are written legibly; alternate spellings are included when the writing is not clear.

Arrangement: Chronological

CONDITIONS GOVERNING ACCESS AND USE

Restrictions on Access: The collection is open for research use.

Physical Access: Original items in good condition.

Technical Access: No special equipment is needed to access the materials.

Conditions Governing Reproduction and Use:

The Anchorage Museum is the owner of the materials and makes available reproductions for research, publication, and other uses. Written permission must be obtained from the Anchorage Museum before any reproduction use. The Anchorage Museum does not necessarily hold copyright to all of the materials in the collections. In some cases, permission for use may require seeking additional authorization from the copyright owners.
