TITLE: William P. Freeborn Collection

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2016.007

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: 1975, 1986

Extent: 3 boxes; 2 linear feet

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): William P. Freeborn

Administrative/Biographical History:

Dr. William P. Freeborn (1918-1999) was educated at the University of Pennsylvania. Nothing else was known about him at the time of processing.

Scope and Content Description:

The collection contains 1454 color 35mm slides, 3 color photographs, two travel logs, and ephemera pertaining to two road trips Freeborn and his wife, Mary Eleanor, made from Pennsylvania to Alaska (1975, 950 images) and to Inuvik (1986). The slide mounts contain detailed information on the location and subject of each image, while the travel logs document the road conditions, services, and events on the Alaska Highway and other routes. Of note on the Alaska trip, Freeborn documented a day of construction on the Trans Alaska Pipeline, depicted in 27 images (.312-338). Of note on the Arctic trip, Freeborn took a multiday boat trip down the Mackenzie River from Inuvik to Reindeer Station on the Arctic Ocean, documenting fish camps, scenery, and life along the river (.1038-1090). For more information, see Detailed Description of Collection.

Arrangement: Arranged by format. Original order of slides maintained.

CONDITIONS GOVERNING ACCESS AND USE

Restrictions on Access: The collection is open for research use.

Travel logs

Donor supplied information: "Travel log for 2 trips to Alaska 1975/Arctic 1986. William P. Freeborn and Mary-Eleanor Freeborn. Almost all of the content is written by W.P. Freeborn with reference to himself as WPF and referring to MEF or ME (his wife). Pages were removed from 3 separate spiral notebooks which were a continuous log from date of purchase of Winnebago (actually, 2 Winnebagos). Log entries not related to their travel to North are not included here. Both trips began in SE Pennsylvania and ended, so include portions of travel in Lower 48 states (but not the slides)."
