TITLE: Frances and William C. Ray Collection

COLLECTION NUMBER: B1990.002

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: 1941-1994, bulk 1944-1947

Extent: 1 boxes, 0.4 linear feet

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Frances E. Ray (née Pickolick); William C. Ray; A. Eide; Sawyers; Glacier Photo Service; United States Army

Administrative/Biographical History:
Frances E. Ray (née Pickolick) was born on 16 February 1921 in Grangeville, Idaho to Elizabeth and Frank Pickolick. She relocated to Alaska in 1944 and worked at Fort Richardson as a secretary for Bill Ray. They were married on 20 May 1945. Frances went on to teach at Anchorage High School (later West High School) and retired in 1976. Frances also worked for a period of time as the registrar at the Anchorage Community College. She was an avid volunteer in her later years at the Anchorage Museum and the Anchorage Convention and Visitor Bureau. She passed away on 17 August 2005.¹

William “Bill” C. Ray was born in Gough, Texas on 3 November 1916 to Nason and Fern Cornelius Ray. Bill moved to Alaska in 1939, and served as a civilian employee in the Depot Supply at Fort Richardson during World War II.² He joined the U.S. Air Force Civil Service, and worked as a property administrator for the White Alice project from its beginning until his retirement in 1973. According to his obituary, he was an avid photographer and enjoyed collecting photographic slides of Alaska. He passed away on 3 April 1994.

Both Frances and Bill were proud to live in Alaska, and enjoyed traveling to the “Lower 48” and abroad as often as possible.

Scope and Content Description:
The collection consists of photographic prints, postcards, slides, collected papers, and ephemera pertaining to Frances E. “Pickolick” Ray and William “Bill” C. Ray. Materials were created or collected by the Rays during their WWII employment years and in the years following in Alaska. The 48 photographic prints are mainly of tourist subjects and Frances’ living area at Fort Richardson. The 44 slides contained within document the Rays’ trip to Alaska on the Alaska Highway in 1947. Following the photographs is a set of personal papers collected by the Rays documenting Frances’ and William’s WWII employment; travels within Alaska; and William’s vote on Alaska statehood. There is also a series of collected published papers that contain maps of Alaska; WWII-era military pamphlets; and newspapers related to World War II or the S.S. Yukon sinking.

Arrangement:
Collection was organized by item type, subject, and then chronologically into 3 series:
1. Photographs: postcards; purchased prints; personal snapshots; and personal slides [1944-1947]
2. Paper Ephemera: personal (war, post-war); published (military, post-war) [1941-1994]
3. Newspapers [1944-1959]
The arrangement scheme for this collection was imposed during processing in the absence of a usable original order.

CONDITIONS GOVERNING ACCESS AND USE

Restrictions on Access: The collection is open for research use. Some materials may be redacted at time of use.

Physical Access: Most original items in good condition. The personal snapshots have been previously trimmed; and the personal war papers have some smudged ink along fold-lines. Some of the newspapers were previously clipped and are missing sections due to this. The smaller map has tear damage.

Technical Access: No special equipment is needed to access the materials. A light box may be used to view transparencies.

Conditions Governing Reproduction and Use:
The Anchorage Museum is the owner of the materials and makes available reproductions for research, publication, and other uses. Written permission must be obtained from the Anchorage Museum before any reproduction use. The Anchorage Museum does not necessarily hold copyright to all of the materials in the collections. In some cases, permission for use may require seeking additional authorization from the copyright owners.

ADMINISTRATIVE INFORMATION
Acquisition and Appraisal Information:
This collection was donated by Frances Ray in February 1990. An auxiliary piece, Bill’s funerary program, was added in 1994 upon William Ray’s death.

Processing Note:
Newspapers were photocopied and originals were then transferred to Cataloging for further processing or discarding. Generic whole newspapers were selectively photo-copied, and only the World War II or S.S. Yukon articles were retained. Purchased photographs were originally located in a stamped ‘Glacier Photo Services- Seward, Alaska’ envelope which was discarded. Photographic slide transparencies were originally stored in a mailed ‘Kodak Color Transparencies’ box labeled ‘AK hiway [sic] 1947 Bill & Frances Ray’; this box was discarded. Duplicate published materials were discarded, including: a second copy of Anchorage Daily Times’ “Nazis Quit” newspaper; a second copy of “If you should be captured...” Army pamphlet; and five copies of the Alaska Purchase Certificate Letter. All metal staples and paper-clips were removed and, when necessary, replaced with plastic-clips.

Separated Materials:
Two maps have been removed from ‘B1/F5 Papers-Published (Post-War/Non-Military)’ and placed in oversize.
