OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: 1942, 1954, 1958

Extent: 16 items

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Frank Leslie McRae, Betty McRae

Administrative/Biographical History:

Frank Leslie "FL" McRae travelled the Alaska Highway with his wife Betty, daughters Frankie and Vicki, and stepson Jim in 1954 and 1958. Betty kept journals of both trips, detailing the family's experiences. The second journal ends with the sentiment: "This is my second diary of pulling a trailer up the Alaska Highway, & I do hope if we ever get another bright idea, that we can read the first diary & if that doesn't convince us, we can get out the second one – that should do it."

Scope and Content Description:

The collection consists of two journals, 13 black-and-white copy prints of photographs taken by the McRaes on the 1958 trip, and one postcard sent home during the same trip. Of note are two photographs of bush pilot Jimmy "Midnight" Anderson. Also included is one empty World War II-era ration book, belonging to three-year-old James Edward Cook.
