TITLE: Archbishop Francis T. Hurley Collection

COLLECTION NUMBER: B2016.022

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLECTION

Dates: circa 1899-1909

Extent: 2 box; 1.5 linear feet

Language and Scripts: The collection is in English.

Name of creator(s): Beverly B. Dobbs, Frank H. Nowell, S & H, Arthur L. Bell, O.D. Goetze, H.E. Hammond, Vern L. Grinnold, Henry G. Kaiser, George R. King

Administrative/Biographical History:

Francis T. Hurley (1927-2015) came to Alaska in 1970 as Bishop of the Juneau Diocese. He was appointed Archbishop of Anchorage in 1976, a post he held until his retirement in 2001.

Scope and Content Description:

The collection consists of one album in hand-painted leather covers, measuring 14" x 11", containing 115 black-and-white photographs; eight loose album leaves containing 17 black-and-white photographs; and 47 loose black-and-white photographs. The images depict people, activities, and events in the Nome area during the gold rush period, circa 1899-1909, and include snapshots as well as commercial views. Included in the commercial images are many photographs by A.L. Bell, as well as rare views by O.D. Goetze and Frank Nowell. The photographer of the snapshots is unknown. There are several photographic processes and formats represented in the collection; of particular note are four small format panoramic photographs (.68-69, .82-83). For more information, see Detailed Description of Collection.

Arrangement: Album image order maintained. Loose images arranged by photographer, if known.

CONDITIONS GOVERNING ACCESS AND USE

Restrictions on Access: The collection is open for research use.

Physical Access: Original items in fair to good condition.
