ANC DESIGN WEEK

You are invited:

Anchorage Design Week will be hosting a free screen printing workshop featuring submitted designs. The workshop will guide participants through the process of turning your interpretation of what 61°N means to you into a t-shirt graphic.

Maximum outer image dimensions: 10”w x 8”h

Examples:

2026 ANC Design Week invitational submissions and screen prints

Submit / info:

Your 61°N exploration is a creative way to contribute to Anchorage Design Week and share your skills. For this screen print project, please make your design / illustration using only black and white as shown in the examples above. Halftones and textures will also work. We invite you to share with friends and connect your process and product with us on Instagram @anchoragedesignweek.
